

Phytosanitary supervision

Published: 26.04.2022.

To ensure phytosanitary safety, the State Plant Protection Service carries out phytosanitary supervision of growers, traders, markers of wood packaging material, seed producers, international transporters, as well as exporters and importers. All companies involved in these activities are registered in the Official Register of Professional Operators and are inspected annually.

Official register of professional operators

More about phytosanitary supervision:

Phytosanitary supervision

<https://www.vaad.gov.lv/en/phytosanitary-supervision>